Dear Mark,

Your letter of the 29th arrived at the moment juste, as I have just received for THE PILGRIM the assignment from Commentary. I have then sent on your material and we will let you know how things have developed.

As to your friend Menkus, we simply don't have a thing here. Naturally I will see him if you ask me, but I am afraid it is a waste of time. We have just been through a big hiring spree.

Best as ever,

Roger W. Straus, Jr.
